BARBARY COAST DAYS

Emblem Club Presents
Gold Rush Party

Barbary Coast days will be revived when the Gardena Emblem Club 257 and the Elks 1919 present the annual Gold Rush Party Oct. 22 at the Elks Hall, 1735 W. 162nd St., Gardena.

"Lucky Lucy" Portis will present a revue featuring the Gardena Can-Can dancers and barroom ballads by Judy Blake. Master of ceremonies will be George Luther. In the Jolly Corks room one can dance with the Frontier Gals or the can-can dancers for a small fee.

The fun and gambling will be with sham money given with the purchase of each ticket. The door prize will be $100 cash and there will be other prizes during the evening. Tickets may be purchased at the Elks Hall or at the door.

Co-chairmen for the evening, Mrs. Marion Clark and William Ellenberger invite all to join the Gold Rush and add to the Barbary Coast atmosphere by coming in costume.

Mother-Daughter Party Given by Y-Grannies

The "Grannies," Tri-Gray girls of southeast Torrance held a Mother-Daughter Social Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Patty McMullen. The girls were honored to have as their guest Mrs. Alpo Renz, Triangle Council Advisor of the YMCA. Mrs. Renz commended the girls for their dynamic role in community service exhibited over the past year.

Eta Kappa Party Opens Rush Period

In keeping with the theme "Lights, Camera, Action," Eta Kappa Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha opened its rush season with a couples party labeled "Stage Struck." The party was held poolside at the home of Mrs. Michael Quadrato in Torrance.

"Dress Rehearsal," a model meeting, was held Oct. 12 at the home of Mrs. Bud Hauck in Redondo Beach. Five guests attending were Mmes. Harold Housley of Lawndale, president of Mira Costa Council; Robert Gunderson of Torrance, executive secretary; Gordon Ross, Redondo, parliamentarian; Jeanne Whitmer, a transferee from Santa Maria; and John Blandy, Rolling Hills.

The philanthropic program "Fan Mail" continues with members addressing and stuffing envelopes for the Tubercular and Health Association at the home of Mrs. James O'Donnell in Torrance. A guest at the workshop was Wilbur Hammond, Lomita postmaster and chairman of the association. The next workshop is set for Oct. 26 at the home of Mrs. James Matheny in Rolling Hills.

"The Premiere" or Preferential Tea for pledges is set for Oct. 29 at the Torrance home of Mrs. Fred Walton, rush chairman.

discussed with them service projects for the future, and recommended that they consider a possible division in order to accommodate a waiting list of new members.

Mrs. Dorothy Peer was presented to the Grannies as their new leader, or Great-Granny for the coming year, taking over the reins from Great-Granny Mrs. Meri Jo McMullen. Mrs. Peer spoke to the girls briefly about their program for the coming year, and to the mothers regarding parent participation in the group activities.

The next regular meeting of the Grannies will be held Tuesday evening, Oct. 25, at the home of Miss Donna White, at which time an election of new officers for the coming year will be held.

Local Girls Return From 7-Month Tour

Home from a seven and a half month tour of the British Isles, continental Europe, Greece and the Near East are two local girls, Miss Roxanne Barnard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Barnard, 1219 Fern Ave. and Miss Linda Corder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Corder, 808 Coia Ave.

The girls traveled together as far as Greece where they separated. Roxanne went to Israel where for six weeks she worked on a kaboutz or farm. Linda returned to Germany and took a job at a resort hotel.
